

ESCAMBIA ACADEMY DECEMBER 2015 NEWSLETTER

STUDENT ATHLETE ACCOMPLISHMENTS

We want to recognize a few of our student athletes for recent accomplishments:

- Mary Thompson Lancaster spent Thanksgiving at Disney World representing EA, AISA and the Universal Cheerleading Association in their Thanksgiving Parade.
- Mikayla Spruill will be travelling to London over Christmas break representing EA in the Christmas Parade there.
- The AISA All Star Football Game will be played Friday night, December 4th in Montgomery. We have four All Stars representing EA in this game: Bradley Campbell, Josh Fields, H. T. Fountain, and Geo Little. Mikayla Spruill will be on the All Star Cheerleading Squad. Our EA band and dance teams will also be performing.

POINSETTIA SALE

The PTO is holding a Poinsettia Sale. Order forms were distributed before Thanksgiving and are due with payment by December 4th. The Poinsettias may be picked up on December 14th behind the Elementary School. Please contact Ashley Brantley at brantley_a@ymail.com with any questions.

BASKETBALL SEASON

Our Boys and Girls Varsity and Junior High Basketball Teams have begun and we are having a great season! Please see the Basketball Schedule on the EA website.

Our Band Parents are manning the concession stand at the basketball games and are receiving high reviews for the hamburgers, hot dogs, fries and several other goodies offered. Come out and support our EA Cougar Basketball teams and enjoy the concession stand, the band playing in the stands and the dance team performing.

WINTER SPORTS PHOTOS

Winter sports photos will be taken Monday, December 7. Athletes should remember to bring their uniforms for photos.
